

ONE CENT—LAST EDITION—ONE CENT

GET TODAY'S NEWS IN DAY BOOK
EASY TO READ ON CAR GOING HOME

THE DAY BOOK

An Adless Newspaper, Daily Except Sunday

VOL. 5, NO. 59

Chicago, Monday, December 6, 1915

398

POLICE HIDE BOY FOR THREE DAYS

Youth Held in Jail Without Booking Since Last Friday

—Judge in Boys' Court Calls the Case Outrageous

—Advises Boy to Sue Police

Just how rotten a stunt the police can pull on a young fellow, or on anybody was queered in the boys' court this morning when Judge Fisher balloted some coppers out and turned Walter Allan, 5345 Blackstone av., out in the open air after three days in the lock-up.

Allan was grabbed Dec. 3—that's way last Friday—by Officers McGuire, Higgins, Tapscott, as they were signed on the booking sheet, because he happened to look like one of the boys who were throwing stones in the neighborhood of 1505 E. 63d st. way last October.

The boy was taken to jail and not booked until this morning. He was held three days, under no booking, but just because he happened to look like one of the stone throwers. This morning he was booked for breaking a window and brought into the boys' court.

And then Judge Fisher took a hand. He celebrated his first day on the boys' court bench by taking a